

ENTERTAINMENT

Woodstock-New Paltz Art & Crafts Fair

Saturday, 12-4pm

Hurley Mountain Highway

HMH is an acoustic-electric quartet playing the finest '60s and '70s pop-rock "Feel-Good Music". The music of AMERICA, from Peter Frampton, to Bob Dylan, The Byrds, Badfinger, The Band, Van Morrison, Elton John, The Doobie Brothers, The Eagles, Steely Dan, Joe Walsh, and more!

May
24

Sunday, 12-4pm

The Arborline

Arborline is a folk-rock band formed over love of song and harmony, born out of the Hudson Valley. The trio brings a natural, acoustic aesthetic to a wide range of material from the worlds of folk, rock, and pop, including classic songs, deep cuts, forgotten gems, and originals.

May
25

Monday, 12-3pm

Judith Tulloch Band

The Judith Tulloch Band performs a blend of Brazilian, Latin rock, American standards, and original music. Singer-songwriter Tulloch's curvy voice, framed by an evocative band, dips, soars and swoops as she sings about unique subjects.

May 26